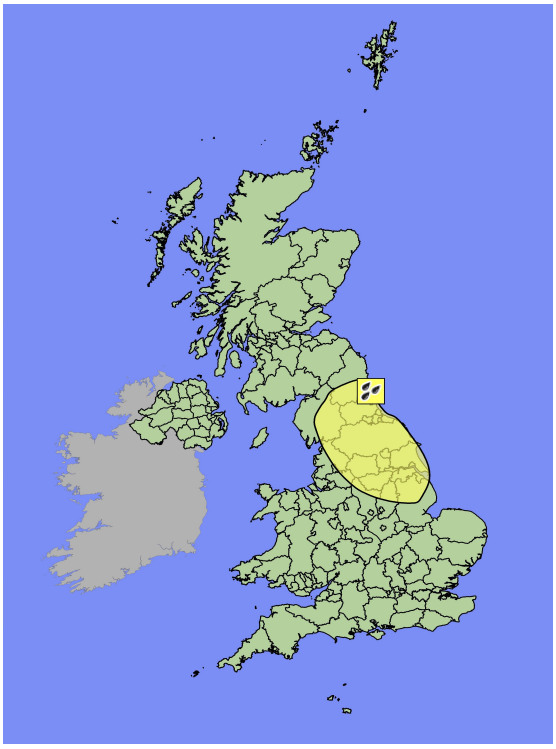
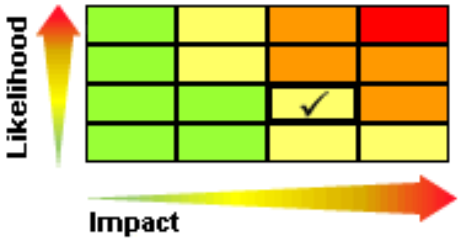
National Severe Weather Warning Service





Chief Forecasters Assessment
Slow moving downpours across some parts of northern and eastern England during today may lead to localised surface water flooding, especially where these downpours affect urban areas.

The Met Office have issued a Yellow Warning of Rain

Valid from 00:00 on Wed, 20th Jul 2011 until 21:00 on Wed, 20th Jul 2011

Heavy showers or longer spells of rain are likely to develop more widely across much of northern England and parts of eastern England during today. Some of these showers may produce 10-20 mm of rain within an hour, with a few places receiving 30-40 mm in total, especially across Yorkshire and the Pennines.
